RABBI RAYNA GROSSMAN

LOU BUNIS WITH
RABBI MORDECAI KAPLAN

Join us for our new ANNUAL BUNIS FAMILY LECTURE SERIES with our inaugural speaker Rabbi Rayna Grossman (they/them), the Director of Field Education at the Reconstructionist Rabbinical College. Rabbi Rayna oversees student training, ensuring that future rabbis are prepared to serve in a variety of settings and communities. They bring to their role substantial experience in supervising rabbinical students and, thanks to a background in social work, possess a rich understanding of what supervision can look like and how powerful it can be.

SPONSORED BY David Bunis and family. David's father, Lou Bunis, helped to found Temple Sinai, the first Reconstructionist congregation in Western New York and one of the first few Reconstructionist congregations in the US. In honor of his father, David has generously offered to fund an annual series featuring speakers from the Reconstructionist Rabbinical College.

Rabbi Rayna will also co-lead the SHABBAT MORNING SERVICE ON SATURDAY AT 10:45AM and speak during the Kiddush Luncheon following the service. Please RSVP to Joanne at joanne.marquisee@gmail.com.
